

KU coach Nyangwara disappointed after draw with JKUAT

Kenyatta University coach Clifford Nyangwara was left fuming after his charges failed to breakdown JKUAT in a Kenya Hockey Union Premier League clash despite dominating the varsity derby at the City Park yesterday. JKUAT has always been a tough team to play against considering the match between these two sides is a derby. We will have to prepare well to get maximum points in our next game.” His counterpart, Tevin Jamine was happy to have gotten a point despite missing several first-team players.

<https://www.the-star.co.ke/sports/2019-05-06-ku-coach-nyangwara-disappointed-after-draw-with-jkuat/>